

	DATE/TIME	ACTIVITY / SPEAKER	TITLE OF PRESENTATION
	October 18: Day One: Plenary Sessions
October 18: Day One MORNING	08:30 – 09:00	Opening/Welcome Session Welcome Speeches: Deng Tianyi (Dalian Municipal Government) Hongmei Yu (Vshine founder) Qin Xiaona (founder, Capital Animal Welfare Association) Dave Neal: AfA Accomplishment since 2017 [5 mins]		October 18: Day One MORNING
	09:10 - 11:45	Keynote Speech: Using Laws to Protect Animals (i) Moderators: Kelly O'Meara (Humane Society International) Panelists: Amanda Whitfort (University of Hong Kong Faculty of Law) Sun Jiang (Northwest China University of Law and Politics) Jill Robinson (Founder & CEO, Animals Asia Foundation) Pam Frasch (Lewis & Clark Law School)	Using laws creatively to protect animals. Animal protection law-making in Mainland China: efforts and challenges. Harmony in our Home – Protecting Wildlife and Helping Communities in China. Using laws creatively to protect animals: American experience and Cases.
	12:00 - 13:00	Lunch Break
October 18: Day One AFTERNOON	13:30 – 15:30	Keynote Speech: Using Laws to Protect Animals (ii) Moderator: Paul Littlefair (RSPCA) Panelists: Bernie Unti (Humane Society of the U.S.) Grace Gabriel (International Fund for Animal Welfare) Wolf Gordon Clifton (Animal People) Gao Lihong (Central China University of Economics and Law)	Setting the stage: Historical and contemporary perspectives on the legal protection of animals. The power of law in combating wildlife crime. Legal dilemmas involving animal welfare and religious freedom. The extent of lab animal protection under China's existing laws and regulations: a look at options of legal actions.	October 18: Day One AFTERNOON
	15:30 – 17:30	Case Handling Strategy Contest Presentation Moderator: Peter J Li (Humane Society International) Commentators: An Xiang, Amanda Whitfort, Pam Frasch, Gao Lihong Presentation Teams: East China University of Law and Politics Northwest China University of Law and Politics Guangzhou University	[Representative of each team speaks for 10 mins]
	18:30 – 19:00	A brief pre-dinner "Interview" of five attendees by Bernie Unti
	18:30 – 21:00	Welcome Dinner
	day close
	October 19, Day Two Panels and Schedule
	09:00 – 11:30	Panel 1: Animal Law and Education (I) Moderator: Jackson Zee (Four Paws) Panelists: Laure Boissat (World Animal Protection) Maria Maliga Vernandes Sasadara (Animals International) Elvyra Aprillia (International Animal Rescue, Indonesia) Fiona Woodhouse (Hong Kong SPCA)	The Animal Protection Index: a Global Ranking of Animal Legislation and Policy. Using existing laws creatively to close the dog meat trade in Bali, Indonesia. Combating Wildlife Crime in Indonesia: Building Judicial Capacity Through In-House Training Workshops. Hearts and minds mainstreaming and working with in a legal framework to influence policy on companion animal management.
		Panel 2: Law and Companion Animals Moderator: Wolf Gordon Clifton

DATE/TIME	ACTIVITY / SPEAKER	TITLE OF PRESENTATION
October 19, Day Two MORNING	Panelists: Matt Backhouse (Four Paws) Peter J. Li (Humane Society International) Qian Qian Zhang (Dalian Vshine Animal Protection Association) Arkaprava Bhar (Humane Society International-India) Heidi Marquez-Caguioa (Animal Kingdom Foundation)	Using existing legislation to tackle the dog and cat meat trade in Southeast Asia. The Lack of an Anti-cruelty Law is No Obstacle to Confronting the Dog Meat Industry. Legal actions are achievable in China: Two Successful Cases. Using existing legislation to End Dog Meat Trade in India. Unifying Various Laws Against The Dog Meat Trade.
	Panel 3: Animal Law-making and Animal Law Training Moderator: Amanda Whitfort (Associate Professor, University of Hong Kong Law Faculty) Panelists: Aron White (EIA International) Chris Green (Harvard Law School) Wim DeKok (World Animal Net) Roger Lohan (Thai Animal Guardians Association)	The need for comprehensive prohibition of commercial trade in wildlife threatened by trade Mandatory Police Training on Animal Law. Simplifying the Development of Effective Animal Welfare Law: the Model Animal Welfare Act. Thailand and Our First Animal Welfare Law.
	Panel 4: Farm Animals and Legal Actions Moderator: Roger Cutting Panelists: Joyce Tischler (Lewis & Clark Law School) Carolina Maciel (Humane Society International) Laura Gough (Anima International) Jessika Ava (Beyond Carnism)	Creative legal approaches to protecting farmed animals. Legal experiences of advancing animal protection in Brazil. 101 On how to collect evidence for successful prosecution. Using Food Policy to Fight Animal Suffering.
	11:45 - 12:45 Lunch Break
14:00 - 16:30	Panel 5: Government & Law Enforcement Moderator: Pamela Frasch (Prof. of Law, Lewis & Clark School of Law) Panelists: Yang Yang (Beijing Adoption Dauy) Wim DeKok (World Animal Net) Jackson Zee (Four Paws) Ivan Kurajov (Society for the Protection of Animals, Serbia)	Adoption: A weapon against unregulated breeding and trade of pet dogs. Building a global animal protection movement. Animals in Disasters? The legislative framework to ensure the protection of animals in Asia. Law and reality - fighting animal cruelty on the national and local level in developing countries.
	Panel 6: Animal Law and Education (II) Moderator: Chris Green (Harvard Law School) Panelists: Darren Wang (Hong Kong SPCA) David F Coggan (RSPCA) Hari Prasad Joshi (Animal Nepal) Anna Cabrera (The Philippine Animal Welfare Society)	Full utilisation of the law - maximizing the outcome when fighting animal cruelty and minimizing unintended negative consequences. Can law makes society better? Animal Nepal's role in developing the world's first national Animal Welfare Policy. Lessons from animal welfare resources in the Philippines.
	Panel 7: Animals in Captivity Moderator: Paul Littlefair (RSPCA) Panelists: Hu Chunmei (Freedom for Animal Actors) Dave Neale (Animals Asia Foundation) Heidi Quine (Vietnam Bear Rescue Center, Animals Asia Foundation) Darek Figa (ENRICH Project) Catur Yuono Parasetyo (International Animal Rescue Indonesia)	Legal Advocacy for Performing Animals. Working with local traditions to end elephant cruelty in Vietnam. Protecting bears in Vietnam; understanding attitudes and perceptions. The smallest decisions can sometimes make the biggest difference - providing choice to improve animal welfare. A SMART multi-stakeholder approach in reducing potential human-orangutan conflict across West Kalimantan.
	Working Group Sessions

	DATE/TIME	ACTIVITY / SPEAKER	TITLE OF PRESENTATION
October 19, Day Two AFTERNOON	17:00 - 18:30	Working Group One: Wildlife Trafficking & Trade		October 19, Day Two AFTERNOON
		Facilitator: Dave Neal	How to minimize wild elephants suffering while legal enforcement is pending: experiments in Assam, northeast India.
		Members: Naveen Pandey (The Corbett Foundation)	Animal cruelty in illegal wildlife trade – a review of the legal framework in Southeast Asia.
		Sallie C. W. Yang	Motivations for the exotic pet ownership. Does current legislation address the issue?
		Sofiya Shukhova	Supporting a diversity of approaches.
		Marianne Van Der Werf (Effective Animal Advocacy Fund)
		Working Group Two: Farm Animals and Legal Protection
		Facilitator: Joyce Tischler	Campaigning for legislation against factory farming
		Members: Jeff Zhou (Compassion in World Farming)	Cage-free campaign in Korea.
		SOL Kim (Korean Animal Welfare Association)	Effective Animal Advocacy.
		Leah Edgerton (Effective Animal Advocacy Fund)	Combining Corporate and Legislative Policy to Create Change for Farm Animals.
		Chris Liptrot (The Humane League/Open Wing Alliance)	We can't do it alone - creating strong organizations and finding allies to achieve legal change.
		Andrzej Pazgan (Anima International)
		Working Group Three: Laws and Morality in Human-Animal Relations
		Facilitator: Kelly O'Meara (Humane Society International)	How Social Media and Traditional Media can be used as a vital tool in education and public awareness about Human Education and swifter prosecution of Animal Cruelty.
		Members: Rhea Manila Santos (Philippine Animal Welfare Association)	The use of contextualized problem-based learning in enhancing students' understanding of issues around a so-called messy problem; the development and imposition of laws relative to animal welfare.
		Roger Cutting (The Donkey Sanctuary)	PAWS LEAD Program - Enriching Learning through Kindness and Compassion.
		Joanna Fidela Paradero-Mamit (Philippine Animal Welfare Association)	Humane Education.
		Chiemeka Chiedozie (The Humane Global Network)	Life education starts with children and reduces harm from the root.
		Gege Liang (Dalian Broadcasting and Television Bureau)	Innovative fundraising strategies to support local, national and international animal protection and wildlife management.
		Robert Ramin (Grenzebach Glier Camp)
		Working Group Four: The Challenge of Wildlife Protection - The Case of Orangutans
		Facilitator: Bernie Unti (Humane Society of the United States)	Orangutan and Bullet, Never Ending Story.
		Members: Hardi Baktiantoro (Center for Orangutan Protection)	Enhancing the capacity of local rangers to save protected species: Lesson learned from Lesan Dayak, East Kalimantan.
		Sari Fitriani speaking for Indira Qomariah (Center for Orangutan Protection)	Forest for People and Wildlife.
		Paulinus Kristianto (Center for Orangutan Protection)	Law enforcement against global investment, A mission impossible?
		Hardi Baktiantoro (Center for Orangutan Protection)	Examining the relationship between visual and text-based social media in gaining civil society engagement in the plight of Bornean orangutans.
		Heribertus Nugraha (International Animal Rescue)	COP School, how education could be the key to combat wildlife crime.
		Sari Fitriani (Center for Orangutan Protection)
	18:30 - 19:30	Asia for Animals Coalition Meeting (Meeting Room TBD)
October 19, Day Two EVENING	19:20 - 21:20	Documentary Screening		October 19, Day Two EVENING
		Moderator: Yang Yang and Fiona Woodhouse
		Documentaries: A Lucky Dog (重获新生) [Yang Yang], a Vshine-HSI rescue story
		Kangaroo: a love and hate story [to be introduced by Mick McIntyre and Kate McIntyre Clere and followed with a discussion and Q&A]
day close

	DATE/TIME	ACTIVITY / SPEAKER	TITLE OF PRESENTATION
	October 20: Day Three	Plenary Session
October 20: Day Three MORNING	08:30 - 10:00	Law-making and Enforcement (I) Moderator: Bernie Unti (Humane Society of the U.S.) Panelists: Paul Littlefair (The Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals): Sun Deming (Ethics and Animal Welfare Committee of International Council for Laboratory Animal Science) Liang Zhiping (China Arts Research Institute)	Bringing the public with us: Building a consensus for animal protection law in China (携手公众: 在中国建立动物保护立法共识) Ethics, animal welfare, national standards in Chinese labs: breakthroughs in China. The principle of the rule of law in animal protection	October 20: Day Three MORNING
	10:00 - 10:15	Tea Break
	10:15 - 11:45	Law-making and Enforcement (II) Moderator: Andrew Rowan (former CEO and President of Humane Society International). Panelists: Mark Pearson (Animal Justice Party) Louis Ng (ACRES and Singaporean Parliament) Jinfen Zhou (China biodiversity conservation and green development foundation)	The Dirty Dark Secret of the Great Southern Land Australia. Engaging politicians and government in law enforcement. Law and legal actions for biodiversity.
	12:00 - 13:00	Lunch Break
October 20: Day Three AFTERNOON	13:30- 15:30	Law-making and Enforcement (III) Moderator: Wolf Gordon Clifton Panelists: Mang Ping (College of Chinese Culture) Eddie Bowles (Advocates for Animals)	The legal challenge of animal performance in China. Using laws to tackle the donkey skin trade.	October 20: Day Three AFTERNOON
	16:00 - 17:00	Awards Ceremony Hosts: Deng Fang and Maizi Award presenters: Jill Robinson, Bernie Unti, Yu Hongmei, Kelly O'Meara, Amanda Whitfort event close			